

EFA London, St. Margaret's House, 21 Old Ford Rd. E2 9PL
charity number 1133268 Company No. 6909738

EFA London Job Description

Date: 12/10/2016

Job: ESOL teacher

Pay: £27/hour for teaching. £13.50/hour for administration, organising and training.

Number of contracted hours: To be confirmed, possibly several courses

Location and times: Various community locations in London, especially Wandsworth and Southwark. Various times available and room for negotiation.

Start date: asap (ideally first week of November)

Responsibilities

- You will be responsible for delivering and planning ESOL classes
- You will help build a participatory learning community with your class
- You will lead on logistics of the class, working with your hosts to solve problems
- You will develop the capacity of students to make positive change
- You will help students to take action
- You will monitor the outcomes of the course
- You will access appropriate continued professional development to improve your practice
- You will liaise with our fundraising manager to develop project proposals

Qualities

A successful English for Action teacher needs to be...

- well-organised
- a good communicator
- lively and enthusiastic
- respectful and inclusive
- determined to create a more equal and fair world
- interested in people and their stories
- well-informed about political processes and local services and facilities
- Committed to our values and principles

*Candidates must be eligible to work in the UK

EFA London, St. Margaret's House, 21 Old Ford Rd. E2 9PL
charity number 1133268 Company No. 6909738

To apply:

Please send us a covering email and your CV. In the email please tell us about:

- Your ESOL teaching experience
- Your strengths and weaknesses as an ESOL teacher
- What you understand by participatory ESOL
- What experience you have of taking action to effect positive change (either individually or collectively)
- Any other relevant details

Contact:

Email Dermot Bryers: dermot@efalondon.org

Telephone: 07789006248